

10.00–10.15	Opening and welcome words of host.	12.30–14.00	Lunch break with lunch buffet in the South Tyrolean Parliament.
10.15–10.30	Dr. EVERTON ALTMAYER, professor of linguistics at the University of São Paulo and chairman of the Austrian cultural association „Dona Leopoldina“ from Dreizehnlinden. Austrian double citizenship in Dreizehnlinden – Brazil: a positive reality.	14.15–14.30	Prof. Dr. DANIEL TURP, professor of international and constitutional law at the university of Montreal. Dual citizenship in comparative constitutional law, European law and international law.
10.30–10.45	NORBERT RASCH, president of the socio-cultural society of the Germans in the Oppeln region in Silesia and, for the „election committee German minority“, member of the regional parliament of the Oppeln Voivodeship. Dual citizenship for the Germans in Silesia (Poland).	14.30–14.45	JAN DIEDRICHSEN, head of the secretariat of the German minority in Copenhagen and former director of the Federal Union of European Nationalities (FUEN). A new era in the North: Denmark allows dual citizenship.
10.45–11.00	TAMARA MORANJAK, vice-president of „Lista per Fiume“ (Lista za Rijeku). Minority rights and dual citizenship in Croatia.	14.45–15.00	Dr. ANDREA CARTENY, assistant professor of history of Eastern Europe at the Department of History, Cultures and Religions at the University of Sapienza. Approaches to dual citizenships in the regional Danubian context: the cases of Slovakia, Moldava and Romania.
11.00–11.15	ROZA HOVHANNESYAN, head of the Department of Armenian communities of America and Australia. Ministry of Diaspora of the Republic of Armenia. Dual citizenship for diaspora Armenians.	15.00–15.15	ALEXANDRA VON SCHANTZ, representative of the party „Ålands Framtid“. Experiences of double citizenship from an autonomy perspective.
11.15–11.30	Dr. KOLOMAN BRENNER, vice dean and habilitated university lecturer at the Faculty of Arts at the Eötvös Loránd-University (ELTE) Budapest. Minority rights of the German minority in Hungary – without dual citizenship.	15.15–15.30	DIMITRIOS IOANNOU, political secretary of the party „Vinozito – Rainbow“. Dual citizenship between the Republic of Macedonia and Greece.
11.30–11.45	MAURIZIO TREMUL, president of the executive committee of the Italian union of Slovenia and Croatia. Reacquiring the dual citizenship for the members of the Italian community in Croatia and Slovenia.	15.30–15.45	Prof. Dr. PETER HILPOLD, professor of international and European law, University of Innsbruck. Double citizenship in international law.
11.45–12.00	JULIJAN ČAVDEK, political secretary of the party „Slovenska Skupnost“ for the Gorica province. Dual citizenship as a means for the national Slovenian unity beyond state borders.	15.45–16.00	DDr. FRANZ WATSCHINGER, lawyer. Implementing the double citizenship act for South Tyroleans in the Austrian law on citizenship.
12.00–12.15	ERNŐ FANCSALI, president of „Erdélyi Magyar Néppárt“ (EMNP), district of Kolozsvár. Double citizenship: The case of the Hungarian community of Transylvania.	16.00–17.00	Discussion.